How to Play Wits & Wagers Party Some of the fun trivia questions. Last year, I decided to create a unique family Christmas game by writing custom holiday questions for the game Wits and Wagers. Once every player has written an answer/guess, the boards are all turned face-up and arranged from smallest to largest. We needed to read through the instructions to clarify a question but can't seem to find ours. It's the conversations and the playful banter that make this family night of togetherness such a wonderful experience. Due to the guessing trivia of this game, even younger kids can play which can put a funny spin on things. And because it's so simple to tally scores the game plays along at a great pace. They can place them on two different answers or double up on the same answer. This is a collection of our most recommended family board games. Make it an awesome Christmas party game with these free printable Wits and Wagers holiday questions! Our family absolutely loves the board game Wits and Wagers Party Edition. Mase says: I would like to know how much chips do you begin with in the deluxe version? I asked each member of our family to rank the games in their preferred choice and here are the results: Family Member 1st Choice 2nd Choice 3rd Choice Caleb Party Family Original Brooke Family Party Original Jaden Party Family Original Trevor Family Party Original Mom Family Party Original Dad Party Family Original As you can see, we're pretty evenly split for our first choice between the Family Edition and the Party Edition. I have more than 7 people that will be playing and don't see anything in the rules that would prevent me from splitting us up in team. The great benefits of Wits & Wagers Party scoring I wonder which it will be... When compared with the other Wits & Wagers games, we really like the scoring in Wits & Wagers Party. And this time they apply named it Wits & Wagers Party! You may wonder if the world needs another Wits & Wagers game. But the cool thing in Wits & Wagers Party is that on the 7th question players can place any scoring chips they've earned through the game with their wager tokens to increase their odds. The big one is with 2 points and the little one is worth 1 point - simple scoring that's truly great for families. But in Wits & Wagers Party the twist in the final round gives all players a chance to make it interesting. We created a printable holiday edition of this classic, and we cannot wait to share it with you! How to Play Wits and Wagers There are many different ways to play Wits and Wager, but we think it is the most fun when you play in teams. The game play formula for all the Wits & Wagers games is simple. For example, the questions in Wits & Wagers Family Edition are great for kids and adults alike. Family Christmas Games We love playing fun Christmas games with our family over the holiday. After 7 rounds, the person with the most scoring chips wins. Most guesses in the example were over $100. With 3 Wits & Wagers games on our shelf to choose from, the real question now is which of the 3 would we pull out to play on any given night? Of course, each game has its strong points depending on who you're playing it with. All submissions will be reviewed within 24 hours. After all, there's already the original Wits & Wagers, Wits & Wagers Expansion Pack 1, and Wits & Wagers Family Edition. You can have up to six teams playing this game, which makes it a great Christmas party game! It is perfect for our extended family of twelve. Wouldn't it make sense, similar to poker, that other players have the right to know how much money (points) you have accumulated so they alter their own bets? Even if you have no idea, you just might be the closest answer which really levels the playing field. This party game is fun to learn how to play and you should be off and playing in no time. In the original Wits & Wagers game, every answer is placed on a board that pay out different odds (2 to 1, 3 to 1, etc.). If you do too, you might also like: We hope you have a blast with this holiday edition of Wits and Wagers. Which makes Wits & Wagers Party the best of both worlds of the previous Wits & Wagers games. We don't have to team up if we don't want to. Ben says: Is there any reason why you couldn't play this as teams? We can simply pick the set of questions that we like and the scoring method we like depending on the gang we're with that particular day and we'll have fun.
